When remembering Noreen my mind always goes back to the days when we were motorcycle mamas. Nearly every weekend we'd be on the Yamahas going to Rocky's mom's cabin or down to the fireworks at Grand Haven. Just about anywhere we could think of just to be on the road. We were pelted with rain more than once, caught bugs in our teeth (till we got face shields) and had to holler at each other because the noise was so loud...but oh, how we loved it. I love you Noreen. Always will. And I'll see you again someday.

I am so sorry that I can not be there for the family of Noreen. We had lots of fun in high school. We had not talked until a couple of months ago when we had a chance to talk and communicate on facebook. Even though I am not there at this time, you are all in my thoughts and prayers. I hope to hear from someone that can tell me more about her. I am missing my dear friend who we called "Cookie" in school

It was couple weeks ago that Mrs. Hewitt crossed my mind. Ironic as it was I am so glad that I had the chance to speak with her last year, it was as if I had talked to her yesterday. That was just the kind of beautiful person she was, an absolute angel. I considered her my second mom growing up, she always made me feel welcomed and loved. I'm sure I can speak for all the other neighborhood kids, she was our favorite neighborhood mom. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I'm so sorry for your loss. Love, Cristina Cuellar

To the family of Mrs. Hewitt, I am so sorry for your loss. It's been a long time since I last seen Mrs. Hewitt. And that was probably in Fruitport Elementary School! I'm glad that you posted some pictures of her and then I remembered her being me and my sisters' school bus driver. She may have remembered my Grandma Dorothy Kotecki who also drove school bus, but retired before I was in school. She passed away 5 years ago. I remember that she was a very nice lady. May God be with you during this time and remember and hang onto all of the memories that you had of her. With Deepest Sympathy, Rebecka (Kotecki) Hoyt

Noreen is and will always be my sister. She was only five years older than I. Not my only or oldest nor the youngest; I had five total. I remember very few things about her simply because she was a sweet and quiet sister. The main thing that comes to mind is of myself picking on her. We Cook kids were nine strong but now only seven are left. Where do the days go? My heart is truly heavy and I'm going to miss her. My heart truly go out to her children and grand children and Larry her husband. These I mention because they have a life time of memories I don't have. Their hearts are so pained and full of forgotten LOVE as they remember her. She can not come back to be amongst us, not a one of us would bring her back after spending time with Jesus. We all want to be there along with other family membership that have gone on before us. My tears will dry up some day as the hurt subsides. Jesus has made it so easy to be with Him for ever and ever and ever . . . Please do miss and hurt for each other but then be sure that each and every one of you are among the rest of us as a Saved Sinner vs a lost. Yup, we all are sinners but Jesus has also made it possible to be one of His. Brother, Uncle, and Grand & Great as well, I love you all Dennis W. Cook

While we were younger, if you saw one of us, you usually saw the other one--having our picture taken, playing, getting into trouble--you name it.'Reen hated school--grade school anyway (before boys came into the picture). She would play "sick". Her teachers would tell me to take her home, and mom would make me take her back to school. Not fun.We stood up for each other at our weddings. I have a picture of 'Reen kissing righ along with Wayn andl as he was kissing me at the end of the ceremony.We lived close together for years--just around the corner. Our kids were at each other's house most of the time.The families camped together every Memorial Day, 4th of July and Labor Day. What fun we had. The families still camp together and I get there whenever I can. I miss those times of "family time".Larry & 'Reen, Hope & Rocky and Wayne & I took many motorcycle rides together. I truly miss those rides and time together.When Wayne & I divorced, she opened her home to the kids and I until I could find a place for us to live. I'm sure that was quite an imposition to all the family, but she never complained.Then I moved away. But, 'Reen would drive over and spend time with me. We shared many jammie days and movie days. I could always "crash" at her house when I came to "the other side of the state". She never failed to "touch base" with me.I will truly miss my SISTER. Who will call me now and say, "I miss your face! I miss your voice!"?Cher

Hello there Grandma, your favorite Kyle here.Well, where to begin.It's felt like ages since i last seen your beautiful face, but it has only been only a day. Its hard to accept the fact that you have left the party on earth and joined the new one in Heaven. I feel like i could drive right over to your house and you be there standing in the kitchen window waiting for my arrival, and have freshly made salty crackers sitting on the table... because you knew i only ate them fresh. We could spend the day watching the weather channel just like you always loved to. We could do word searches.We could look at all the pictures from my childhood and laugh at the memories.And at the end of the day when it was time to go, you would be there in the kitchen window holding your signature "I Love You" sign for all to see as we drove off... thats what im going to miss the most.But i know you're no longer in pain, and thats whats going to get me through this. I miss you Grandma more than anything in the world. Love You,Kyle

Oh mom how we miss your smiling face. We will always remember the good times we had. Love you forever. Our Mom and Grandmother! "Her shoulders are a little bent, her youthful force a trifle spent. But she's the finest women we know, with a heart of gold and hair of snow. We only hope we will always be, as kind to her as she is to thee. Sometimes she's tired and seems forlorn, her happy face is lined and worn. Yet, she can smile when things are glum, that's why we loved are gray-haired mum! She doesn't ask the world for much, just comfort, friendliness, and such. But, from the things we have heard her say, we know it's up to us to pay. For all the deeds she's done for us, oh in gods name we must trust. Oh, not in dollars, dimes or cents, that's not a mothers recompense. Nor does she worship wealth and fame, she'd have us honor Jesus name.
