Kay M. Mayo

APR 20, 1945 - MAY 16, 2013

Kay M. Mayo, age 68, passed away Thursday afternoon, May 16, 2013 in Muskegon. She was born April 20, 1945 to Frederick J. and Mercedes L. (Brouhard) Mayo, Sr. in Muskegon, and was a life resident. Most recently Kay had been employed as an executive secretary for the Muskegon Juvenile Detention Center, and prior to that, worked at Muskegon Bank and Trust for 25 years. She found delight in the “youngsters” in our family. She loved them all. SURVIVORS include 1 brother, Fredrick “Jim” (Linda) Mayo, Jr. of Farmington Hills; niece, Trisha Mayo; nephew, James Mayo; grand-niece, Latia (Jordan) Willis; grand-nephews, Micah (Summer) Clanton, Eric Clanton; 2 great-grand-nephews, JJ(Jordan) and Jhalil Willis; close friends, Judy Nauta, Matt Kaley, James Hekathorn. A memorial service for Kay will be held at the Jibson Immanuel Baptist Church in Ravenna, 8007 Evanston Ave. (corner of Evanston and Sullivan) on Saturday, June 15 at 1:00 PM. You may visit the family’s online guestbook at www.sytsemafh.com Contributions in her memory may be made to Harbor Hospice or family to help with her expenses. Arrangements by Sytsema Funeral Homes, Inc., The Walburn Chapel, 1547 W. Sherman Blvd., Muskegon, MI 49441, (231) 759-8565.

I usually saw Kay twice a week when I worked at the youth detention center. I always enjoyed talking with her. She once loaned me some letters written during the Civil War by a soldier relative of hers. I considered them very valuable, but she didn't hesitate to let me take them home to read. Rest in peace Kay. Peter Chandler
