Uncle Lyman was an absolute hoot! I remember as a kid going to Chicago to visit him. One time he took us to the zoo and at the fences of the bulls cage, he and ran up and down along the fence waving a cloth to get the bulls to chase him. Then there was the time at the Muskegon art fair where he was trying to sell gold thread as real gold to those that walked by. He was always upbeat and positive and told great stories. The last of the Meloche sibilings to leave this earth and now they are all together again. We love you Uncle Lyman.Maribeth
