I just learned of Yvonne's homegoing today and, though I rejoice for her, I send my condolences to the family. I knew Yvonne from Medinah Baptist Church in Medinah, IL. We sang in choir together and became good friends. Her children and grandchildren were the lights of her life and she prayed for each of you all the time. It encouraged me to remain constant in prayer for my own children and grandchildren. I was just going to be choosing a birthday card to send her when I learned of her passing! She was one godly lady and I look toward the day when I will see her again in Glory!
