I am so sorry for the loss of this amazing woman. Marcia was the embodiment of what a "good neighbor" was. She would always crack a smile and yell a "Hello!!!" No matter what time of day, rain or shine...She was unconditional in who she loved and cared for. She would always have something for my daughter on Easter, Christmas, Birthdays and on a daily basis...she would always have a popsicle or some change handy because she loved to see people smile. I will truly miss her and I hope we all can be as good of neighbors to each other as Marcia was to us.RIP Marcia,Love Geddy.

So sorry to hear of Marcia's sudden passing.She was one of my favorite cousins with whom I shared many memorable Essebaggers camping trips to Silver Lake, Wilderness, Interlochen and the Pine River when we were kids. Her sense of humor and pleasant nature and smile I will not forget.

Dear Rottman Family and Friends,I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my family's sincere condolences. When someone you love dies, there is a sadness and a void that is excruciating and overwhelming. May it comfort you to know that our Creator hears our cries, empathizes with our broken hearts, and will soon act to rid us of this last enemy, death, forever. Marcia always waved and grinned so big when we passed her home on Friendship Lane. We were neighbors, and Marcia was always helping someone with their yard, giving grand ideas and helping in any way she could to make your yard beautiful. We surely will miss her waves and smiles. One day we came home with a new car, and she looked real hard to see if she knew us...the look on her face was one of surprise..and she stopped us and said, " I almost didn't recognize you guys ; don't change cars too often, I may think you are strangers." I know Marcia, she would wave and smile anyways, even if we were strangers. What a gal, and we will miss her.

The tide recedes but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand, The sun goes down but gentle warmth still lingers on the land, The music stops and yet it echoes on in sweet refrains... For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains. Our Thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this sad time.
