I bought my home on Southwood from the Ostradick's. They were so helpful and patient with the process. I loved Frank's handiwork around the house and always remembered them as such kindhearted people, often wondering about them. My condolences to his family during this trying time. Uncle Frank was a soft-spoken man who always had sage advice to give. He was a master at his hobby of furniture restoration. I always admired the beautiful antiques he had restored. Sorry for your loss Aunt Sally and my cousins.
