So sorry for your loss. We enjoyed our visits with Louie when we were in the neighborhood. He often stopped by our office on Airline & Quarterline and patiently listened to Dave's life stories that no one else had patience for. He was always a gentleman and a blessing in our life. God grant you peace in knowing Louis is at rest. Lori & Dave Loring

Darling Deblet... I remember the first day I met Louie, so many years ago. You brought him to work to introduce him to all of us at Christian Care. He was holding your hand to tightly and was probably a bit intimidated by all of the attention that afternoon. I thought you looked so happy and proud of that beautiful little boy, your love for him radiated from you and enveloped us all. You and Craig loved him and gave him every opportunity in every way you could. As he began to grow older, the unfortunate circumstances of his past began to haunt him in ways he could not understand nor come to terms with. That past had a great influence on the troubled times that came to be and affected your family in ways no one who did not live with it daily could ever understand. But please remember this. The love and kindness and support you freely gave to him did not go by un-noticed. I met him several times when he would come to visit you at work and could help but see that he loved both of you as much as you loved him. I am so very sorry for your loss and pray comfort will come to you and to Craig knowing Louie is at peace. Frank Gyori

Craig and Deb, our hearts ache for you and along with you. It's so sad when a young life is cut short. Louie gave us all a wonderful gift to share when our Logan was born. Having to explain his father's death is the hardest thing our daughter Calla will ever have to do in her life. We all need to be there for Logan as he processes this. Our prayers go out to all of you. We are here for you in any way you need us. Love, Chris and Pat

My dear friend Deb and Craig, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember when you two first adopted Louie. You would bring him in the Home on your day off. He could hardly reach the button on the alarm to go out and how he would grow and eventually could reach that button with no problem at all. It's a strange memory, but that's what I remember watching him grow up so fast. Wish things could be better for you and your family. I know you have had your struggles and I pray God helps you through this hard time. God Bless you and comfort you in this sad time. Love you, Della Jardine.
