My favorite memories of Aunt Betty was during the afternoon card games with her sisters and brother. Every time it came around to her turn to deal, she'd swear that "she just dealt" and the arguments would follow. There was always loud voices, lots and lots of laughter, plenty of food, and always love. Now she'll be with Pat, Dot, Mick, Skipp, and LaVern gathered around a card table once again. You were all very special! I miss you all every single day! Gwen
