Dear Family and Friends of Emma. We are saddened at the loss of a wonderful friend. She was my son Marks sitter for me during church. He is 43 and still loves her as do all of us. She was such a blessing to us. I was a young ministers wife with 3 small children. She would help me paint or do ironing or cook or whatever I needed. We will not forget the taste in her chicken pot pies. They were so yummy. And her rhubarb pie as well. I have been able to keep in touch with her down through the years. I stopped and visited her about March of last year, and she was so tickled to see us. I couldn't believe she was still so active. What a Lady!! She has surprised the Drs. so many times. But this is her coronation day, and I don't see how her head will hardly hold her crown as she was a woman of good works, who truly loved to work for the Lord. She will be so missed. I am so proud that our lives crossed paths and we remained friends to the very end. I just received a Christmas card from her and I will cherish that. God Bless. Our thoughts and prayers are with you today. Our family loved her as did many others. And Sherrie she was so proud of you. Thank you for all your love and care.
