Grandpa,I can only imagine how happy you are now, in a perfectly healthy form, reunited with your two favorite fishing pals; your son-in-law Pete and your beloved wife Dorothy. May you rejoice in their company and the company of our Savior, until we are all called home to join you on that final perfect lake.I pray that God will lend the comfort in his promise of an eternal reunion to your daughters and their families so that it might ease the pain of separation until that time.You were a man of kind and gentle strength here in this life, an example to us all. I thank you for that. May God rest your soul peacefully.Jason##imported-begin##Jason Dillingham##imported-end##
