Mr. Rahn was a kind man. George and Eloise would give the neighborhood kids a ride to church with them on Sunday and to choir practice whenever we needed one. I remember George's laugh and it makes me smile thinking of it. The last time I saw him, I gave and got a big hug. His neighbors are going to miss him but we can take comfort in knowing that he is with Eloise and somehow that will help us deal with his passing. I have thought of Eloise countless times over the years and will do the same with George. God bless them and everyone who loved them.##imported-begin##Melody Deater##imported-end##
