I live down the street from Ashley and I really didn't know Randy but when I came over there sometimes he was always there. He was a nice guy and you could tell he really cared about his family. We used to talk about hockey and I always told him I liked the Devils and he always pointed to his Cross around his neck and said he didn't like the Devils because of there name and he believed in Jesus. That always made he smile. That was the thing with Randy he made a lot of people smile. He was a good relative and friend to the people he loved. Now he is in a better place, Heaven with Jesus.##imported-begin##Austin Tyler##imported-end##

Hi sorry I could not be with you tonight but I was thinking of you all and remembering Randy and him calling me lou (lou bordoux) and a couple of summers ago he brought out the picture from the Chronicle of him, Johnny Walton and me standing in front of the lighthouse the guy down the street made we were probably 5 and 6 at the time and when he got the mini bike I think we all envied him on that one. I think of you guys every time I look over at the house, it still seems so unreal a big part of the neighborhood is now gone I'm gonna miss them all. You are and will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers. Caroline##imported-begin##Caroline Stoddard ##imported-end##

Randy, i dont know where to start. Except by saying your back where you belong. Your back in heaven were god planned you too be and back with your mom+dad that love you with all they got. Your in such a better place now that you now know all the glory of + you finaly met your maker. You were always the awesome'st person too talk about god with. YOUR SO SMART, i remember me and ashely always going too you when we had a question or a problem. And how you always had an answere (you cared for you family) YOU COULD TELL. I understand why it is so hard too loose somone so great, its happend to me before. And your family and friends will be sad for a long time. BUt they have to keep in mind that your smiling down on them and still in their hearts + most of all in there memories. Ive been around ashley and the family since i was like 1 and her best friend my whole life. She and katie always spoke very highly of you. I Respect you for all your knowledge. Now you Know what heaven is like and i know your happy where you are. SAY hi too my sis for me.thanx for all you taught me randy-tara##imported-begin##Tara ##imported-end##
