Dear Aunt Grace & Randy, I don't know if you will remember me but I was a niece by marriage from my Aunt Karen, and Randy's cousin. I was so sorry to read about Uncle Franks passing. He was always such a warmhearted &'gentle giant'. I also remember how kind you both were when the upstairs apartment above your store burned the first night after I had moved in. I was going to nursing school and a single mom and you and Uncle Frank helped me and my Ryan replace things we lost. Although it has been years since I have seen you all he looks the same. I will keep you in my prayers. May God grant him peace in the heavens of light.###imported-begin###Ruth Manolis (Workman)###imported-end##

I was an infant the first time you saw me, so unlike my siblings...I only know you as Grandpa Frank. I remember all of our little trips up north, and the sleep overs.Christmas was always very special, you always remembered us, with a special gift..like warm jammies and socks.I remember the summers when we would go to the auction in the big orange truck, and you were the first person I ever went fishing with, and ate fish for (yuck) just so I could go with you, because your rule was, you eat what you catch....UGGHHH! Grandpa the things I would do for you...that was at the list of all time pushing me over the edge...but I did it and determined...I LOVED YOU, but really hate FISH...We were lucky kids to have you as a part of our lives..and I will never for get you clinking the ice in the glass for me to fill you up with water this summer.Cara,loves and misses you already more than you will ever know.Love, Freddieps...I bet Brunno met you at the gates of heaven with a snowplow so that you would make him king of the hill again. ;)###imported-begin###Darlene "Freddie-sweetheart" Henry###imported-end##

Gramma Grace: I was so sorry to hear about Grandpa Frank. He will be missed by many, especially by the kids this Halloween as they have many fond memories of him handing out dimes. Take comfort in knowing he's with God and all the Angels where he has no more suffering or pain. One day we will all be reunited.
