Amanda, I was the nurse to bring you into triage when you stated you weren't feeling your baby move. It was change of shift, but us day shift nurses stayed until we had results by ultrasound that she was okay at the time. Then we felt at ease leaving you in the hands of our fellow night shift girls to care for you and your baby! My prayers go out to you and your family! We just wanted to let you know that even after you deliver and leave the hospital, we do remember you and pray for you! God Bless your family!##imported-begin##Candy Howard, RN##imported-end##

Bing: We are so very sorry for your family's loss. I wrote this for your family: I hope it brings you some comfort....This small child born in love,A gift from gracious God above.Filled our lives with precious dreams,For just a moment, it would seem.Then with a whisper left this place,And rose to heaven to touch His face.Leaving behind hearts that ache,With love they never will forsake.Till one day at heaven's gate,No longer empty arms that wait. 17 March 2007.##imported-begin##Betty & Pat Driscoll##imported-end##
