Aunt Bii Hekkema was the sister of my dad, Louie Herlein. My fondest memory of her was seeing all the beautiful things she knit. I loved her sweaters, and I always felt her designs were the most beautiful I had ever seen. She was so kind to me when I was a young girl, always taking time to talk and listen to what I was thinking.Since we moved to California nearly 20 years ago, we lost touch - as families often do. However, I am thankful for her Christian faith, and I know there will be a reunion someday! And she'll be there.##imported-begin##Nancy Reynen##imported-end##
