Minnie W. Johns

MAY 1, 1938 - SEP 2, 2007

Minnie Wealthy Johns, widow of the late Raymond Donald Johns, of 775 W. Forest Ave., Muskegon, MI passed away September 2nd at Mercy Hospital. Born in Grand Rapids, MI, May 1st 1938 to Lola Luella Cobb and Clarence Vanderveen Hyde.

There will be a family gathering at 775 West Forest Ave. in Muskegon, MI all day Saturday, September 8, 2007 to exchange stories and memories. All family and friends are invited to stop by.

Minnie had been fighting many medical problems since losing the function of her kidneys. Going to dialysis 3 times a week, having one bad lung, going through heart and lung surgery and numerous stays in the hospital fighting a variety of infections. She fought a long and hard fight, never giving up, but she grew tired and the battle got to be too much for her.

Minnie was the sister to Mary B. Cartwright, Dorothy M. Ritchie, Mamie E. Mumper, JoAnn K. Swanson and the late William T. McNally and is survived by her 5 children, Donald, R. Johns, Katherine S. Jourden, Andrew J. Johns, Robert J. Johns and Barbara J. Uhl; 15 grand children; 17 great grand children and 2 gg grand children, Please share your memories with Minnie's family at their on-line guestbook at

Kathy Jourdan and the rest of the Johns family. I have often wondered if any of you were still in the area. Haven't seen anyone in a coons age. Was surprised to hear about your mom. I do remember all the fun times we had visiting back and forth when we were kids. Where do you live now? Send me a note. Linda Easton, 6489 S. Grandma, I will never forget all the great times i have had with u since i came back because i was gone for soooo long and then i came bac and we kinda stuck juss like glue and i am sooo happy i got the time i have got to had with u. I am very very sad that i could not have more but i don't really want to be selfish either because i now know u r in a better place and ur not suffering or in pain anymore so i can't be selfish but i also can't say that i am not going to miss u either because i am gonna miss u alot. I loved u with all my heart and u were the only grand parent i had left, but it will be ok because u r safe now and probally having a blast. grandma i will look for u in the stars everynight and i will talk to u in the stars everynight ok well grandma i am also very sorry i never got to visit u in the hospital.My prayers and thoughts are with the rest of my family also.By the way i bet grandma is having a blast up there because her fishing buddy is up there.R.I.P Grandma MinnieI Love YouLove Always Your Granddaughter Andrea Jo##imported-begin##Andrea Jo##imported-end##
