Judy and family, our sincere and deepest condolences to you all. Dick was a very kind, quiet, tender-hearted man we were always happy to see and chat with at the 46.You could always find him in his special seat on the end, with a cozy around his glass,a smile on his face, and kind words for friends. We will miss him so much. Please know you are all in our thoughts, on our hearts, and in our prayers. Matt & Angie##imported-begin##Matt & Angie Moser##imported-end##

Dad you will be greatly missed. We will cherish all the beautiful times we had together as a family. Dad I will especially miss you on opening day of hunting season which we hunted together every year. I was so proud of you all the time, but especially this year with the way you felt. We made it one more very memorable hunt with that Big Buck. Love always your forever hunting buddy Son MARK.##imported-begin##mark and karen lampman##imported-end##

Dick was the best friend a person could ask for. We've had many laughs with him. He had a special seat at 46 Bar where he would go to sit and have a couple of drinks, play a little Keno, but mostly just to visit with his friends. Our lives were better because he was in it. We will miss him terrible. Love Ya Dick! Julie & Steve##imported-begin##Steve & Julie Belmarez##imported-end##
