Bill & Gwen:We'll miss Uncle Butch very much-his Christmas Eves in Holland and those special creme puffs. His last Christmas Eve with us, he gave me a little white crocheted angel for our Christmas tree. As my Godfather, he always remembered to send me birthday cards, even after Aunt Helen died. I'll never forget those "nubby" little jabs he would give us girls when we were kids. He and Aunt Helen were very special people and now they're back together.##imported-begin##Judy & Tom##imported-end##

Thank you for helping us to celebrate the life and to observe the passing of or dad and father-in-law. We were happy to see many people at the service at St. Michael's and the luncheon afterwards. We would also like to thank people for their expressions of sympathy.We will miss Dad immensely' because he was so special. However, we are thankful that he is heaven with Jesus and mom.##imported-begin##Bill and Gwen Petroski##imported-end##

I particularly enjoyed seeing and speaking to Uncle Butch at our family reunion. We talked a little baseball and fishing, it runs in the family he said. God rest his soul. Steve and Valerie Petrowski##imported-begin##Steve Petrowski##imported-end##

Bill, Gwen and Tony, One of our great memories of your dad (and mom) was the night after our wedding reception, when they helped my mom and dad haul home all our gifts. It was just typical of the wonderful neighbors they were and the blessing we have always felt to have been friends for over 50 years!
