My prayers are with you and your family, Linda. It was my privilege to be with you even for such a brief time at McAuley Place. You were my first resident and I'm honored to have had the opportunity to learn from you and about you. I will remember you always.##imported-begin##Dawn Adams##imported-end##

I was fortunate to have known Linda even though only a short time. Even in difficult times she had the ability to understand what was important and give her all for that cause. I will always remember Linda as a kind and generous person. Unfortunately I cannot attend the memorial but I want the family to know that my thoughts and prayers are with them during this sad moment and difficult loss.##imported-begin##Dennis Robison##imported-end##
