We were out of town and finally read the papers yesterday and felt just awful when we read about your mom. We knew her from the Eagles and have so many great memories of time with her. We went to the casino with her once and always enjoyed visiting with Peggy. Our hearts and prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Tony and Carla Clark##imported-end##

What a fun lady to be around. I know when my mother passed Peggy was the first one from the Eagles to offer to do a lunch for us. I will never forget her for that. She was a blast to play setback with and always had that laugh that you knew from a mile away. Heres to ya Peggy!!! Judy and I will miss her.##imported-begin##Mike and Judy Stonex##imported-end##

I met Peg a long time ago when she was married to Dick. She was so friendly and outgoing you couldn't help but love her. We would sometimes not see each other for years, but when we did she was the same wonderful person I'd met way back when. I was happy to see her at my Dad's visitation and happy to find out that her health had gotten better. I'm really saddened to learn that we've lost such a wonderful person. Please know that I'm thinking good thoughts about Peg because that is all had. My sympathies to you Kim, and the rest of Peg's family. Peace be with you always.##imported-begin##Art Backstrom Jr.##imported-end##

To Peggy's family, we pray that the Lord eases your sorrow and heartache. We have some great memories of Peggy and Dick at the Eagles Family Picnics, and family get togethers with other Eagles family members. She was a huge help to us when our father (Dick Jones) was sick, and now they are together watching over all of us.##imported-begin##Jones & Kendall Families##imported-end##

Aunt Peg, We are family by birth but friends by love. I will miss you so very much, your laughter, your smile, but most of all the Aunt mobile rides, the birthday cards, talking about the 'Tigers' and Christmas Eve. The angels are rejoicing as they have another angel in God's Kingdom. Rest in Peace until we meet again. Loving you, Lori##imported-begin##Lori Muttart##imported-end##
