Bob & Family,I just saw the news of Helen's passing through Google today. This was such a Strange & Sad Feeling as we knew that she had been struggling for quite awhile, yet never thought we would find out that she had passed. Helen was always a fighter and that is how I remember her as being a Kind, Strong, and Understanding Person. I knew Helen from when I used to work in my Dad's Store and Helen seemed to be like one of the Fixtures (She was just expected to be there). I mean this in a Positive manner and She was Loved by All the Strevels. I know She will be sorely missed by Her Whole Family and Friends. Helen You are Finally At Peace with The Lord. Our Thoughts and Prayers are with You and Your Family.God Bless,Bob Strevel & FamilyEnfield, Connecticut

Dear Bob and Family, We are so sorry that Helen passed away yesterday. It is sad but she does not have to suffer the terrible pain anymore. Remember all the happy times that you spent with Helen and it will help with the grief. I am so glad that Sharon was there for you. She is a gift to help at a time like this.##imported-begin##Nancy and Whitey Zissler##imported-end##
