Today is the day when we'll all say goodbye to your body forever. I know your soul is in heaven and looking down on us and taking care of us. Your grandchildren (Robbie, Zachary, Trevor) will miss you terribly. No more pain in your ankle or back anymore and no more tears to cry. I hope Grandma and Grandpa Regelin and Grandma Rutkowski are showing you the ropes in heaven and you send me a sign that you're safe and happy. Mom, you were a terrific-special woman in my life. Whenever I needed someone to talk to about my life, friends, work, or anything else, you were always there to listen to me and comfort me. I will miss my talks with you and your hugs. I pray that you know how much all of your family loved you. Dad is heartbroken, Mom. Hug him and let him know that it's alright now. Jack and I and our families will do our best to take care of him now. He's a strong man but, I think he'll miss you yellin' at 'em for this and that. lol There's never a final goodbye, Mom. I will definitely see you in heaven when the time is right. Say "hi" to God, Jesus, and all the other relatives in heaven. God Bless Us All!!!!

To my mother in law....a very kind and understanding woman 'especially of me'...every time I would see her she would be working in the yard and staying busy...When we would go over their house for dinner and have something I did not like, she or Jack would go out of their way to make me something different..They didn't have to but they did...I sure will miss the holidays we would spend together with her....she will be missed by me and my family##imported-begin##Jeff King##imported-end##
