Roger was a very caring, fun loving person who enjoyed life and touched the lives of many people. He was always willing to help someone and worked many hours on the various benefits for the Christian Community Center and other organizations; selling raffle tickets and physically working to make these events a success, even though this was very hard on this body. Working with Roger and his family on music festivals for the center was a meaningful experience and the parties at his house for all the workers was enjoyable. To know Roger, and to have him as a friend was a special gift from God. We will all miss his smiling face and him dearly but we know he is without pain, enjoying a cold Miller and waiting to share a drink and laughter with family and friends in God's home.##imported-begin##Lou and Marilyn Pappas##imported-end##

Roger and I have been friends for some 40 years-- I have many great memories of him from Smitty's, and then was surprised when he became my roommate at mercy hospital last year. To all of you, we are so sorry for your loss. I have so many wonderful memories of really great times at the Seng house on Dangle Road. No matter who was there, why we were there or what we were doing, Roger and Ellen always welcomed us with warmth, generosity and love. Kym, your Dad was always a Dad to all of us -- he cared for everyone, helped everyone and never accepted anything in return.
