Hi Chuck & Joann, I loved Fannie. She was my inspiration to continue some of the assignments for AfterCare as she would remind me of one that meant something to her. She grieved deeply for her sister, Henrietta. Now her sister is showing her around heaven! I will miss her. She graced many meetings with her presence and faithfully did her assignments. I will always be grateful to have known her. Thank you Joann for bring her to AfterCare when she no longer could drive to the meetings. Blessings, Ginger###imported-begin##Ginger Wolffis###imported-end##
