for my friend Sharon and Family, To lose someone you loved so much is very hard to bear, but may God bless and comfort you and keep you in his care. With sympathy on the loss of your father.I remember him with fondest memories for those summer days when he would hang his Seabees hammock between the trees in the side yard, and we were so little we needed something to climb up on to get in it ... boy, did he make us feel like big stuff then!Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of you now, cherish those good memories, and let God handle the rest.xxxooopatandgil##imported-begin##Pat and Gil Line##imported-end##

Dear Dee and Family,I was so sorry to hear of your great loss. Having just lost my father a week ago, I certainly know how you are feeling. How blessed we are to have our faith to bring us peace and comfort knowing we will see them again when we join them in heaven. And knowing that because of God's deep love for each of us they are safe and comfy in the arms of our Lord, in a more beautiful place than any of us can imagine. I pray those thoughts will comfort you now. I share a beautiful thought to hold in your heart, that I shared with my sisters and all his grandchildren during my Dad's eulogy..."He whom we love and lose is no longer where he was before. He is now wherever we are." - Saint John Chrysostom, Constantinople (c. 347-407) I think of Al every time I look at the beautiful stained glass in our church - a legacy that will live on and on. May you always feel our Lord's blessings of peace and love surrounding you. My thoughts, heart, and prayers are with you. Much Love, Patty Ulrich##imported-begin##Patty Ulrich##imported-end##
