I forgot to mention that I feel sorry I could not be at the service for Nancy. I was out of town.##imported-begin##marva tyler##imported-end##

I remember many good times Nancy and I had being together. I was just a young girl when she and I played together. I guess we probably met because my parents, Marv and Barb Klassen lived on Highland Ave. I don't remember those days, but when we moved to Fifth Street, Nancy would come over to visit. In later years, I would see Nancy and Wilma at Unity Ref. Church. I always considered them my friends.##imported-begin##marva tyler##imported-end##

Dear Karen,I want to extend my sympathy to you in the loss of your sister. It has been a couple of years since I last saw Nancy. I would speak to her at Friendship Ministries' events, and tell her that we were friends in high school. Her simple faith was a blessing and we can rejoice that she is now in Heaven.Jane (Zuidema) Peterson##imported-begin##Jane Peterson##imported-end##
