To the Lemke family: My deepest condolences. I didn't know Eddie as a lifelong friend, but we had a few social moments together and he and Alyce graciously entertained a friend and me at their house a few years ago. It's going to seem strange driving by his place every day and not seeing some activity around there, especially his fishing boat and gear. Ed was fun and funny ... and very sharp. I'll miss him. Hello everyone. I feel so bad that I cannot be there. I thought the world of Ed and will miss talking to him. He will always be remembered by me and mine. He was always there for me when I needed him to straighten out Dave. And I remember him and Dave going fishing every chance they got. Now they can fish every day Love you all and think of you often. ##imported-begin## Jackie Lemke ##imported-end##

We are so very deeply sorry. Ed was just such a nice guy. He was a man of deep feeling. One always felt that he truly cared. Rick and I were always very touched by how supportive Ed was of our music. He was so encouraging and interested in anything we would be working on musically or otherwise. He was very loved. We will miss our friend. ##imported-begin## Jane Sytek and Rick Davies ##imported-end##
