Robert E. Yordy

JUN 26, 1928 - JUN 2, 2010

Mr. Robert E. Yordy, age 81, passed away peacefully Wednesday afternoon, June 2, 2010 in Muskegon. He was born June 26, 1928 to Charles A. “Art” and Kathryn (McKenzie) Yordy in Huntington, IN, and lived most of his life in the Muskegon area. The love of his life was raising horses, and holding hay and sleigh rides. Bob worked at Anaconda Wire for 35 years until it closed, and then worked at Hackley Hospital, retiring in 1998. SURVIVORS include 1 son, Kenneth (Debra) Yordy of Muskegon; 1 grandson, Steven Yordy; 1 sister, Betty Gutoski; brothers, Paul (Sandra) Yordy of Philadelphia, PA, Donald (Joyce) Yordy of Sun City, FL, Gene (Sharon) Yordy of Ravenna, Douglas and Dudley Yordy, both of Kissimmee, FL; several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, and his son Terry. A GRAVESIDE SERVICE will be held at 11:00 AM Saturday, June 26, at Egelston Township Cemetery. You may sign the family’s on-line guestbook at www.sytsemafh.com Contributions in memory of Mr. Yordy may be made to the American Cancer Society. Arrangements by The Sytsema Chapel, Sytsema Funeral Homes, Inc. 737 Apple Ave. (231) 726-5210.

I only knew Robert for a short couple of years, but he made a memorable impression. What a character. And quite the naughty boy! He made the last two years of my mother Lora's life "exciting" at University Park nursing home. He made her smile and laugh every day, plus those two kept the attendants and nurses busy with their shenanigans! So sorry to hear of his passing.
