Ardis will forever hold a special place in my heart. Her unselfish generosity, kindness, love, faith and encouragement inspired me and taught me to be a better person. She was extremely gracious to me and my family, a wonderful grandma to my son Kevin and his cousins and a devoted wife, mom, mother and sister-in-law to her family. I will miss this extremely smart, classy lady who gave so much of herself to others just because she could, never asking for anything in return. She was a great cook too and I miss the dinners she set out for us with Virgil doing the dishes for her afterwards so she could sit and visit to catch up on our lives. From our family to yours, extending prayers of healing and peace to you and the ones she touched during this sad and difficult time
