

Mabel Alice Hage

NOV 1, 1912 - FEB 9, 2011

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Mabel Alice Hage

NOV 1, 1912 - FEB 9, 2011

Mabel Alice Hage, age 98, passed away Wednesday, February 9, 2011 in Muskegon at the Harbor Hospice-Poppen Residence following a brief illness. She was born in Lake City, MI the youngest of five children to John H. and Alice (White) Bielby on November 1, 1912. Mabel married Mr. William C. Hage in Freesoil, MI on November 27, 1934. He preceded her in death on March 29, 2001. Mabel graduated from Lake County Normal Teachers College, attended Wayne State University and Central Michigan University receiving a bachelor's degree in education. Mrs. Hage was a school teacher at Wayne Community Schools System for 39 years, retiring in 1973. Following retirement, Mabel moved to Grand Haven and was a member of First Presbyterian Church in Grand Haven where she enjoyed bible study. She is survived by: a son, William J. (Susan) Hage of Muskegon; one daughter, Joann R. Athnos of Muskegon; six grandchildren; and eleven great grandchildren. She was also preceded in death by, a son, Richard, her parents and five older brothers. A memorial service will be held at a later date. For those desiring an expression of sympathy please consider: the First Presbyterian Church of Grand Haven.

Tribute Wall

Mabel Alice Hage

NOV 1, 1912 - FEB 9, 2011

Anonymous posted:

One of my earliest memories of Mabel was in Lake City, when I was a little boy, she graciously gave me an Andorra kitten, which we named Punky. Mabel had an exuberant and joyful presence. I always felt good when I saw her and Bill. my mother, Grace, 98, remarked that Mabel was about 3 months older and through the years they always had a special bond of friendship, that even preceeded her marriage to Bill in late 1934. my parents, Art & Grace used to enjoy traveling to other cousins around Michigan with Bill & Mabel, because they enjoyed their company. Mabel was loyal, intelligent and also a radiant Christian woman that had a profound influence on many of us. May the Lord Jesus Christ smile and greet her into his kingdom and his presence.##imported-begin##Robert & Carol Bielby and Grace Bielby##imported-end##

February 26 at 3:53 PM

Anonymous posted:

Dear Jo, Lori and I are sharing in your loss. We appreciated your mom for the sparkle in her eye that was always there. She always made you feel welcome even when you were welcoming her. Odd how she could do that! The legacy of a classy woman continues on. May the Lord bring you His comfort in this time of grief.With love,Randy and Lori Moeller##imported-begin##Randy and Lori Moeller##imported-end##

February 18 at 7:17 AM

Anonymous posted:

I greatly enjoyed caring for Mabel at Chestnut Fields and she will be deeply missed. It was a joy listening to all of her stories. My prayers go out to you and your families.##imported-begin##Jen Oleniczak##imported-end##

February 12 at 12:18 PM

Anonymous posted:

So sorry for your loss of Mabel but what a wonderful 98 years she was able blessed her family with. May your special memories comfort you and bring happiness during this difficult time! God Bless!##imported-begin##The Zentner Family##imported-end##

February 11 at 7:37 AM

Tribute Wall

Mabel Alice Hage

NOV 1, 1912 - FEB 9, 2011

Anonymous posted:

To a wonderful teacher and kind, patient mother-in-law who bore her burdens with grace - thank you for your example of Christian love.##imported-begin##Kathleen Whalen##imported-end##

February 11 at 6:45 AM

Anonymous posted:

Loved you, Grandma -- so glad we had a chance to reconnect in the past few years. You were a wonderful Christian woman.Rest peacefully.Kristy##imported-begin##Kristen Goran##imported-end##

February 11 at 5:37 AM

Anonymous posted:

Grandmother & Grandfather Hage were absolutely wonderful human beings. They were as good to me, an in-law, as if I was their own. She was always so generous to us. She showered love and affection on her Grandson, my husband Jon, and me and our daughters. We will miss her forever, never forget her, and are better people because of her influence. She lived a good, Godly life and now she is with Grandpa in Heaven, where she couldn't wait to get. I can just imagine them now, back together and content in each other's company. God Bless you, Grandmother. You were one of a kind! XOXOXO Lisa##imported-begin##Lisa Athnos##imported-end##

February 10 at 2:48 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Mabel Alice by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit