It's so hard for us to understand why God would call home such a little one, but we have to believe that Isaiah must have been needed for a very special job because he was a very special boy. I hope you can find some peace in prayer to help ease the tremendous pain you are feeling right now. Our thoughts and prayers have been with you for your loss and for healing of Peyton.##imported-begin##Dan & Sheri Vanderlaan##imported-end##

I don't know you or your family nor do you know me but your tragedy has broken the hearts of many and the community in which you live. As a Mother - I can't even begin to imagine what you are going through. Please be assured that there are many people who are praying for you for there is nothing more that can be done with a loss such as this. God bless and God speed!!!##imported-begin##Sharon Rindfus##imported-end##

I miss you so much little buddy. Hopefully there's a good fishing hole in heaven. Remember....when you "catch a big one", take it off the hook before you cast again. And I'll remember to tell Uncle Chuck to keep your "race car" in good running condition. Sheena, Kenny, and Payton, God be with you during this time and in the coming months.##imported-begin##Robin ##imported-end##
