My condolences and prayers go out to Rick, Denise, and family. While I never met Justin, I knew and hold high respect for his grandfather (George), his uncle (Gary), his aunt (Karon), as well as his other aunts. Rick, I am so sorry to hear this news about your son. My mother was the person to tell me about Justin. I wish I was able to attend the memorial service to pay respect to the families but please know that my thoughts and prayers are and will be with you. There truly are no words and "sorry for your loss" doesn't even come close to what we want to express to you ...I came across an old picture of all the boys from 2002 and it seemed like only yesterday we would tease JJ about being a baby supermodel and he would just smile and shake his head - He was such a great young man with an amazing family and we are all blessed to have known him - I used to call my Justin & JJ "The Justins" I'm sure they loved that regardless of what they said ... we will miss him more than we can express and send you all our deepest condolences and love##imported-begin##Michelle Lambers & Justin Grevious##imported-end##

Rick, Denise, Shan and Nate my heart is just broken for you guys at the loss of such a wonderful guy. I had the privilege of watching Justin grow up next door to us on Vick. He used to look up to Adam and just loved to be there when he was working on bikes. He was always such a nice boy. He will be greatly missed. Love you guys and sending our thoughts and prayers your way.##imported-begin##Cindy Priest##imported-end##
