Cody Jo Brege

JAN 4, 1988 - MAY 19, 2007

Cody Jo Brege, age 19, of Spring Lake passed away Saturday, May 19, 2007, at his home. He was born January 4, 1988, to Gerald and Ginger (Meyers) Brege in Grand Haven.

Cody was a lifelong resident of the Tri-Cities area and was a 2006 graduate of Spring Lake High School. He was formerly employed by Fricano's Pizza in Grand Haven and had recently completed his first year of college at Grand Valley State University in Allendale. A high school honor student, Cody was an avid reader who displayed a unique love for learning and history. He also played tennis and participated in the marching band during high school. He loved his friends, and he enjoyed spending time working on cars and playing hockey.

Cody is survived by his parents, Gerald and Ginger Brege of Spring Lake; his grandparents, Phillip and Dottie Meyers of Spring Lake; three brothers: Eric Knoll of Georgia, Wyatt Brege of Grand Rapids, and Montana Brege, at home; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents. The service for Cody will be held at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, May 24, 2007, at Spring Lake Presbyterian Church with Rev. Daniel Anderson officiating. Friends may meet the family 5-8 p.m. Wednesday, May 23, at VanZantwick Bartels Kammeraad Funeral Home in Spring Lake. Interment will be in Spring Lake Cemetery. Memorial contributions in Cody's name may be made to the Spring Lake High School Scholarship Fund or to the Harbor Humane Society. Share memories with the family at their online guest book at www.vbkfuneralhome.com.

We can tell you how sorry we are and how we will keep you in our prayers and thoughts. We can help you with everyday problems. But the peace has to come from the inner strength I know you both have. God knows what he is doing even if we hate it. He gave us hearts then allows them to break. We ask why, but we have faith that he knows. It does get better it never goes away but it does get better. Cody lived more life at 19 then many who live to be 90 . Dear Ginger and Family,Our prayers and thoughts are with all of you during this very difficult time. Everyone during their lifetime experiences great loss, but I cannot imagine one greater than losing a child. We ask ourselves sometimes why the circle of life must be so difficult, there are no definitive answers, only speculations. Perhaps when you see your son once again in heaven that question can be answered. Please know, we are all mourning your loss. If there is anything I can do please do not hesitate to contact me. I would be happy to help around the barn anytime you might need it. I will pray for you and your family and hope that knowing you have a network of support helps heal some of the pain.God Bless you, Cody and your entire family.Sincerely,Marlene & Family##imported-begin##Marlene(Marx)Dykhouse, Carrie Marx, Mindy Marx##imported-end##

I give my sincerest thoughts and prayers to your family. The death of someone so close to so many people, is something that I Don't believe time will ever completely heal. Cody was such an amazing person to say the least. He had his wild and crazy times, but there was more to Cody than having a good time. Cody had dreams and hopes, and he encouraged me to have dreams of my own.In High School Cody and I saw each other on occasion, but it wasn't until we both went to Grand Valley State University in the fall that I got to know Cody even better. Cody and I sat next to each other in Political Science and Government. We talked about Cody's plans to go to Law School, and his plans to transfer to MSU. Cody was very smart, he knew a lot, and was very opinionated. Cody was the cause of so much laughter, he was my notes stealer, and now why? SO many questions that will remain unanswered except for one: Life is such a gift, such a fragile gift.##imported-begin##Lindsey Cogburn##imported-end##

However, with many ups and downs the last three years that I have been good friends with him have been some of the best years of my life. We had our fights but that didn't change the fact that he was always there for me. He will forever stay with me in my heart and I cannot wait 'til the day comes that I see him again.All my prayers go out to you.Love, Kayla Rose Fortney##imported-begin##Rhonda Fortney##imported-end##

Dear Brege Family,As incomprehensible as losing Cody is, the love and strength that God gives us to guide us through tragedies is even greater. Our memories of Cody will be of his smiling face and gracious attitude. You are in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##The Huffman Family##imported-end##

Jerry and Ginger: Cody will be missed by all, and we are embracing you as you mourn his loss. John and Jane (Sielski) are saddened. We remember his smile and his enthusiasm for competitive in-line hockey. John left for the Central Park rink with some of the boys Sunday night and quietly said: "We're going to play one last one for Cody." You are in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Ed and Jody (Bussard) Herrelko ##imported-end##

Ginger & Gerry -As hard as you try to understand the "why" of losing Cody, it could well be you will never know. Take care of each other, help the others Cody left behind, and put your uncontrollable hurt in the hands of those willing to be there to help. So very, very, sorry to hear of your loss and we pray for God's strength to see you through.##imported-begin##Phil & Norma Cook##imported-end##

Ginger and Gerry, We are so sorry about Cody. It has been a privilege to be at the barn the last few months and to get to know not only your immediate family, but your extended family as well. You have so many wonderful people that will be there for you during this time. Know that we will be thinking and praying for you. Ginger & Gerry, I can't tell you how much I cried and how my heart is breaking to hear about Cody. You two have always been there for me when I needed to talk about Keith. I will be here for the two of you. Only a parent that has lost a child can truly understand the pain you are going through. You are not alone. When the time comes that you need to talk or just a shoulder to cry on or someone to scream with, I will be here. Pam Montambo##imported-begin##Pam Montambo##imported-end##

Dear Brege's:I'd like to take this opportunity to extend my deepest sympathy to you all. Cody was truly a unique and fun person and he will be greatly missed. My fondest memory is of him and my brother John playing roller hockey in our drive way for hours and hours during the summer months. He was a bright and intelligent young man, and very congenial to everyone. Needless to say, our community will not be the same without his smiling face. We have, however, gained another special someone to watch over us for the rest of our days. On behalf of my family and myself, we are so sorry on your loss. Time will heal all.
