Joe and I became very good friends shortly after he entered Grand Rapids Home for Veterans. I even purchased a couple of paintings from him. He was a very talented man; painting, singing, playing the guitar. He loved his cowboy hats, military hats, and cowboy boots. Joe was also a life member of our VFW Post 702 and really enjoyed interacting within the community. We will all miss him very much, and he, forever, will be in our minds and hearts.
