Dear Dora, Rest now and peace and love to you always. I'm sorry we were so many miles apart, but now I can talk to you often in my prayers and in my dreams. Give my best to everyone in heaven, because I know that's where you are. My condolences to your family, as I know you are very dear to them, and I was blessed to have known you. Sweet peace dear one.##imported-begin##Charlene Costello##imported-end##

Dear family. Sorry for your loss. I was happy to hear Mrs. Dornbos (when I knew her) had a long and happy life. Sorry to learn that Rudy had died. We were neighbors in spring lake and Mrs. would let us make french fried potatoes. I thought that was so cool and now I know how dangerous it can be for two 13 year old boys to be handling hot grease in the kitchen. Dora was always a classy and lovely lady and from the obit photo it appears she retained her looks. My life has been enhanced by my brief acquaintance with Dora Ringold.##imported-begin##Fritz##imported-end##

We express our sincere sympathy at Dora's passing. She was one of the first persons we met upon our arrival in Spring Lake in 1960. I believe we were introduced by Rev. Roy Marshall and remember her living on Savidge Street. Our thoughts are with you all at this time.GREG AND CLAIRE BRYSON##imported-begin##John G and Claire Bryson##imported-end##

I loved Dora. She was so good to my Grandma Braak. I stayed with Dora and Gerard many times when I went to FL to visit my grandma next door. Dora and my mother, Lola, were best friends and shared many laughs together. If I hadn't lost touch I would have visited her in FL the last times I was there. The park did not know where she was. I am sorry I live so far away and cannot attend her funeral.##imported-begin##Jan Cummins##imported-end##
