Jack, Martha and I were so shocked and saddened by the news of Linda's passing. We so remember how much fun we all had in Key West when we rode around in the electric car and watched the body painting on the street. Please know that our hearts and prayers are with you and the entire family. John & Martha

Jack:I'm smiling as I write but with a heavy heart. I'm smiling as I think back to 1968 when I met Linda in Midland, yes before you met her. I'm smiling when I think of all the great times and memories of the past 50 years. I'm smiling when I think of Linda and her new address HEAVEN.
