Jim was a special part of my life growing up. We experienced the thrills of catching fish, shooting squirrels and waiting for the big buck. We spent countless hours waiting for these elusive creatures to appear, enjoying each others company and talking about whatever popped into our heads. I was fortunate to have a truly great friend and companion as Jim. I miss him and believe the world was a better place with him in it. Chris Erickson

Aunt June and family, Larry and I hold you in our prayers during this time. Jimmy always put others first. You needed help, he would offer, or at least guide you where to get help.
