Bill and I are so sorry that we won't be able to make the trip to Michigan for Aunt Beverly's memorial service. We have such lovely memories of her and are so happy she has broken the chains of the dreadful disease she fought for so long. Bill remembers her kindness and sweet disposition. She always took time to teach the kids card games like Euchre. Her smile and laugh always brought joy to others. I will always see her with family. Whether visiting and knitting with flying fingers or washing the Fourth of July picnic dishes in a plastic dishpan on a picnic table, she left such a warm impression. Bill and Sarah Dalrymple
