Rusty, you made our days at Bignell School the best! I remember going with you and another couple, I believe it was in the 6th grade, to "The Shaggy Dog" at the Grand Theater. Of course my parents came along as chaperones!! I am glad I was able to talk with you a few years ago. Rest in peace old friend. Karen (Pravda) Rieger

I can't help but smile when I think of you at Mom's and all the fun you both had together. She must have rung the bell to let you know the coffee and the BLTs we're ready. Love you and see you on the other side.

It's so hard knowing what a big impact you had on your families lives and your friends lives. I always loved when you would come into my salon in your white tank top and would have such a smile on your face and be sarcastic. I could always know how happy you were with that cheese grin:) Rest easy my rusty and randy will be waiting for you so you guys can joke around. May peace fill your soul love anjie aka BLONDIE
