Dear Cathy. I remember the first time Rick walked into our AfterCare meeting with you, Cathy. I asked what his name was and he said, "Rick Dick" I thought he was kidding me, he was smiling. He had a great smile and sense of humor. He showed great courage and fought so hard to win . . . over this cancer, You were his inspiration and the love of his life! My heart aches for you. May God Bless & Comfort You. Ginger

God bless you cousin Rick! When I was a kid, it always seemed as though you had a grin on your face, and I'm sure that will be missed by all who mourn your loss. Deepest condolences to Cathy, Jason and Matthew, as well as Pat, Jim, Randy and Bob and their families. You will be in our thoughts and prayers.
