My most sincere condolences to Jeff. He and I were classmates and graduates of Muskegon High School.I pray the family holds fond memories of a kind and positive man. The class of 86 has definitely lost a valuable piece of our mosaic of fellow Classmates and Youthful Students who have evolved into family. Rest well Jeff.

You were my very first nephew and I loved you so much!! You have always been the sweetest and most considerate person I have ever known. I will never make peanut butter fudge again without thinking of you and your big smile as you took some home with you. RIP Jeff...your struggle is over. Please give everyone in heaven a hug from me because I know you are an angel and will be watching over us. Love you Aunt Rhonda
