Amy (Wolf) Kolbe

JUN 26, 1962 - APR 7, 2018

Amy (Wolf) Kolbe, age 55, of Jacksonville, Florida passed away peacefully in her sleep on Saturday, April 7, 2018. Amy was born in Muskegon, Michigan and graduated from Fruitport High School in 1980. Throughout her teen years, Amy enjoyed singing with the Body II Singers through the Spring Lake Wesleyan Church. Her smile and laugh were always contagious. Her hugs made you feel like you were wrapped in warmth. Her heart knew no boundaries as she loved everyone. Amy is survived by her mother, Martha M. Wolf, her sister, Nancy B. Wolf (James A. Payne), niece, Elizabeth A. Leslie (Daniel Pirrotta), and nephew, Ryan T. Cronk. She was preceded in death by her father, E. Paul Wolf and grandparents. She is also survived by her great nephews, Clayton J. Huffman and Chase A. Huffman, and her great nieces, Alicia M. Leslie and Katie A. Kolbe. Amy would always get a big smile and chuckle when these little ones would call her "Aunt Amy the Great!" Amy is also survived by her Florida Family which includes Anne and Scott Kuhl, Audra Powers and her church family. One of Amy's favorite things to do with her Florida family was packaging up shoeboxes for the Operation Christmas Child program. A "Celebration of Amy's Life" will be held 11:00 AM Monday, June 18, 2018 at Lake Harbor United Methodist Church (4861 S. Henry St., Muskegon, MI 49441). In Amy's honor, we are asking, in lieu of flowers, a donation be made to Operation Christmas Child – Samaritan's Purse (samaritanspurse.org). Audra Powers posted:

Thank you for the lovely tribute. Amy was a shining example of Christ through her every day life and a constant encouragement to others in the midst of her pain. She loved Jesus and people and desired for children world wide to know the name of Jesus through Operation Christmas Child. She exuded joy and shared part of her joy with all she met.
