Bouty, every time Feb. 20th approaches, thoughts and memories of you intensify beyond what is usual, thinking of the many years we spent on our "30 days of party". You are missed immeasurably.

My father, Thomas Lee Boutell, was the oldest son of Henry Boutell. I heard a lot about him but never had the opportunity to meet him. My youngest brother was named after him and may they be together in heaven.

Bouty was one of those few people who could remain close even if contact had not happened for several years. Bob provided Sue Borgeson and I, along with Jeff Hoover and his wife and several other couples one of the truly best times of our lives when he took us down the Salt river in tubes-a trip we talked about every time we re-connected over the next 40 years!
