My condolences to all the Welch Family in the loss of their Dad, Brother and extended family members and also friends of Brian through the years. He will forever be in our prayers, and memories for his peaceful journey that takes him to his family and friends before him. He will not have our earthly burdens no longer, he is now with his heavenly father in heaven to guide him to everlasting life with him. Our family, (De Young and Huss) knew his whole family and grew up with him all through our lives and we grieve with you for his loss on this day. May you find peace in his memory of the time he spent with us all here, yet celebrate his life through those memories of his life's journeys we all shared with him on this day. Brian you have left your footprints in life with us all and we will forever hold that walk with you in life filled with all those memories in our hearts, minds and soul forever. RIP Brother Brian
