Dear Laurel, I'm not sure you remember me but I am Dawn Baker ex wife of Bob Nickett. We were married when your little darling baby son, Stanley, passed away. Bob and I attended his funeral and now you have lost your other loving son. I am so deeply sorry! I can't express what it feels deep inside of my heart. I lost an 8 year old daughter but still have my son, Robert the 3rd. My heart goes out to you and my prayers will be that God holds you so close in the loss of Steven. You have been through enough for one lifetime. I looked at his picture and I see your eyes as I remember you from all those years ago. His smile is so sweet. I know you will miss him with all your heart. I am so sorry for your loss, Dawn M Nickett Baker
