So many fond memories starting in 1965, when my family moved into this families neighborhood. Some of the things we did when we were kids, was just crazy! I'll never forget the time Jim lit a firecracker & then put it out, because he decided he wanted to throw it into the Grabinski's garden. We were standing in the alley when Jim rode his bike down to their house. The wick was kinda short so he pulled it out, a little bit, not realizing the wick had black powder on it. When he lit it, it went of in his hand. It didn't hurt him bad, but sure put a sting to those fingers.... Just one of many memories, with Tom, Dan, & Jim.... Rest in Peace, my old friend
