Mike, Michelle, Lisa, I am so sorry to hear about your Dad. Thinking of all of you and your families. I remember all the laughs we had after the races at Thunderbird and maybe just a "few" drinks. I know it's hard, but stay strong. Love you all and sending hugs.Missy Balentine Dausman

Tina Overley lit a candle in honor of Michael.

Far too many to name just one. He always had an ear for listening, and an arm for a half hug, because he couldn't let people know he had a sensitive side. I loved him like a father, but he was a wonderful friend! I'm sure he's racing in heaven with grandpa Clover now....my love goes out to the family.
