I will always remember you as Little Velma... when I was a small girl that's all I identified you with, I suppose that's because my Momma's name was also Velma... I know you are there with all your loved ones that left before you, and we will all meet again someday, you will never be forgotten and we will all miss you so much... Please give all our loved ones hugs. May God Bless you. Until we meet again ... Love you and miss you already.Love Annie Wittebort Price
