The Jackson Hill Neighborhood kids because of David's friendliness had the opportunity and honor to firsthand experience " How to grow up with a disability." We enjoyed having him in our gang of friends. I have many fond memories of ball games in the street and monopoly games on his screened in porch. My condolences to his family. Helen Martin Towne

I remember David from when I was a little girl and he lived across the street from me and my sisters at the corner of Erickson and Sumner. He was one of the neighborhood gang that played kick the can in the alley. In later years I would run into him on the street somewhere and we would have a catch-up conversation. My condolences to the family.- Louise (Martin) Matz
