I truly regret not getting to know you as well as well as the rest of our family. The thing's I did know about you was that were a generous, loving and a very strong woman. You lived life to the fullest the best you could with everything you endured. Until we meet again Aunt Bonnie, I will miss you and I love you very much ♥ R.I.P 🙏 Love, Shelley

I just want to make sure it is clear, John would like to have some type of memorial service in the near future. When a date is determined Robin and I will post about it! Mom, you are very missed!! I am so thankful for the times we got to spend with you- recently grooming our pup!! The last time you were over you were showing off 😊 doing the little number puzzle and showing me how much better you were at it than me when I couldn't solve it!! 😊 and of course you had to rub it in and show me how you could solve it several different ways!! I still am not sure if you were tricking me or not!!! You were hilarious and passed on your humor to Bob for sure! He is really struggling with you being gone, and feels so guilty he didn't push you to get to see him more recently! We know you're in a better place now and get to be with Chris and Eric! I remember you telling me about signs/ messages you felt you got after Eric passed and we're waiting for them from you now!! The boys all love and miss you so much! Anderson has written you letters and taped them to the window! (I feel like you'd have a smart response to this, like well how could I read them?!) You always knew how to make me laugh!! The boys remember how silly you were shaking your chocolate shake all over yourself because you didn't see i just took the lid off!! And I often laugh about you wondering why it is called "common sense when it isn't that common!" We miss you Mom and love you so much!!

Thank you for being my grandma through love. You treated like I was one of your own even though we don't share blood. I love you and will never forget you.

We shared so many laughs when we worked together at Comerica Bank! I regret that I didn't keep in touch with Bonnie, and now it's too late! My sincere condolences to all of her extended family, but especially John, Tanya, Bob and Michael.

I believe this was Thanksgiving 2009 (?) at my sister Kelly's. I love that it is just a candid photo of her visiting with others and showing her beautiful smile. This was a good day.
